Progress? Evolution? Have we really "Never had it so good"?

We are rapidly approaching world government by faceless bureaucrats, international finance, global corporations and secret societies. China, where they kill babies beyond the firstborn 'permitted' child is America's most favoured trading nation. In England the Chinese get the 'red carpet treatment', perhaps because their treatment of babies is just an extension of our own murderous ways in the abortion centres which litter England and Europe.

Meanwhile we ourselves hurtle towards a police state. The rights won so many years ago in the Magna Carta are being sold out by Blair the New Ager and his bosses in the EU. Cash is being done away with and soon we'll all be forced to carry plastic as an "anti crime" measure — forgetting, of course, that criminals are always one step ahead with technology. You'll need plastic to buy everything, to get your wages, to get your dole money, to get your pension — and all transactions will be traceable.

Gun control has never been stricter, but gun crime — primarily by immigrant drugs gangs — is getting out of control on the streets of our cities. And so the State asks for even more of our rights to be swept away, whilst not daring to offend the immigrants' "rights". And this is just the start. "Pay as you go" toll motorways will mean our cars will be tracked everywhere. GM foods and "terminator" seeds will mean more profits for big business — but more defects and cancers for us! And "babies to order"? Homosexuals are already arranging for babies to be born in America. How long before they chose them in a lab? Only recently the Sunday Times greeted the news on the 'human genome' technology which will enable us to "alter" DNA and start playing God by stating: "Great genetics but when will it turn a profit [for the big businesses behind the research]?" Progress? Hardly!

Whatever happened to the idea that the Englishman's home is his castle? He is losing rights as never before. He can no longer defend himself. His children are being brainwashed in the schools (about homosexuality and much else). He is being robbed blind by the taxman. He is being lied to be an enemy media. He is being taken for a ride by the flotsam and jetsam of the Third World. People say that you cannot turn the clock back. That's true — but you can alter the future. That is why we are fighting against the politicians, against the bankers, against the secret societies, against the global corporations, against the New Age freaks and the internationalists. If you want a future for your family, your community and your nation; a future where the control freaks, the plastic cards and the spying cameras are just a bad dream — join our fight for freedom!

LIVING IN TOPSY-TURVEY LAND!

Tony Blair's UK plc is fast becoming the most politically correct State in the New World Order. Here's 13 ("unlucky for some" — i.e. us!) reasons why Blair's Bolshevik Britain is so looney.

1. Last year around 185,000 immigrants entered the UK. Many of these — if not most — will start sponging off the welfare state immediately (unemployment, housing etc.), without ever having put in a penny of tax.
2. Pensioners, many of whom paid tax all their lives, are getting a meagre State pension.
3. Last year around 175,000 babies were killed in abortuaries. Meanwhile Tony Blair says we need more immigrants because the elderly are growing in number and the workforce is getting smaller.
4. A report has come out stating that Whites will be a minority in London by 2010 and throughout the UK by 2100 — and still abortion and immigration continues.

5. The State is attacking our ancient rights by trying to stop trial by jury and by arresting alleged "football hooligans" before they commit any crimes: You do not stop hooliganism by destroying a fundamental part of English justice: innocent until proven guilty.
6. Meanwhile the police are too frightened to stop Blacks in case they are called "racist". This resulted in two deaths at the Notting Hill carnival.
7. It is claimed that one in three criminals is armed. Most drug gangs shootings involve immigrants. Gun laws only affect the law-abiding majority.
8. Blair's government has spent countless precious parliamentary hours seeking the overthrow of Section 28. If only they spent as much time and effort promoting the family as they do placating the homosexual Mafia.
9. People are dying on NHS waiting lists while time and money is found to carry out abortions, sex change operations and other unnecessary procedures.
10. Tony Blair admitted that in the first year of office he spent more on "paying back" the Bank of England than he did on education. And this from a government who promised its priority was "education, education, education". Perhaps it should have been "usury, usury, usury".

11. Meanwhile dozens of millions of pounds were pumped into the Millennium Dome, a fitting symbol of this system: big on glitz but low on substance.
12. Big Businesses still make millions from privatised services. Bus, Train, Water, Nuclear Power (etc. etc.!) outfits get tax-payers' money in subsidies, skimp on safety — which results in accidents — and still make a killing in juicy pay packets and bonuses.
13. As we've seen recently, tax on fuel is hurting many people, but the government think they know best. They claim they can't cut tax without hurting hospitals — whilst billions of our pounds are poured into Brussels' bottomless pit.

On top of all this, White people are still treated as second class citizens and are still more likely to be the victim of a racial attack than their immigrant counterparts.

That's the UK plc. You better believe your eyes — because no-one could make this up! Sanctioned murder, flooded by immigrants, taxed to the hilt, 'rights' for homosexuals, ineffective sentences against paedophiles, armed thugs running drugs...

BABY TAKEN FROM LOVING FAMILY

A 13-YEAR-OLD girl who had financial help from Pro-Lifers (rather than abort her baby) and whose parents said they would help bring up the baby, had the baby taken from her by social workers in Torquay. The family was "devastated" by this and claim that they were victimised because of their Pro-Life views. That a child can be taken from a loving and caring family is an absolute joke! This baby was not "unwanted" or in danger. This was a political act by the local authorities. Meanwhile the State sees nothing wrong in queers adopting or having babies via surrogate mothers. Topsy Turvey UK plc!

HANG PAEDOPHILES!

The media showed its true colours over the recent uproar about paedophiles. Whilst the courts continue to give these animals bail and suspended sentences so that they are free to live amongst children, the media chose to focus its hatred against the parents who dared to fight back against this mad liberalism.

So it was that we read that a parent who organised demonstrations in Portsmouth had previously been banned from driving... as if any of this had any relevance. This is the media-tactics usually employed against Nationalists, militant Pro-Lifers and the like. Newspapers even talked of the demonstrators as spreading "hate".

Hate? We are talking about paedophiles here. Creatures who ruin children's lives... But still the media treats those who dare to demonstrate as the real criminals!

The Times had a field day "exposing" FC for giving the details of paedophiles on the internet and for advertising anti-paedophile stickers.

Parents have the right to know where paedophiles are — and FC online was pleased to expose two paedophiles who had moved to new areas. Of course we regret it when innocents are targeted by mistake... but the fault lies with the "justice" system which should take action against the paedophiles and stop treating them like shop-lifters.

We would urge ALL FC readers to order anti-paedophile stickers etc. from FC and the TP. We must make a stand against these low lives now and not allow the liberal media to dictate the agenda and let paedophile scum off the hook.

There is no excuse for paedophilia. There is no excuse for the liberals who excuse paedophiles and attack decent working class people whose only aim is to make their estates safe for their children.

Demanding action against paedophiles is not extreme. It is perfectly normal. It is the liberals, homosexuals and Marxists who try to excuse paedophiles who are the extreme ones. PROTECT OUR YOUNG - HANG PAEDOPHILE SCUM!

ALL AROUND THE WORLD . . .

THERE'S RED FACES IN PARIS

A former junior cabinet minister of France's Radical Left Party has been expelled for daring to speak the truth and describing homosexuals as "abnormal destroyers of humanity".

Senator François Abadie, a former mayor of Lourdes and minister for tourism who now sits in the French upper house for the Hautes-Pyrénées region, was ejected from the party after telling a protesting parliamentarian to "go bugger" himself.

The Radical Left's chairman, Jean-Pierre Baylet, said he had no choice but to sever all ties with him. His "homophobic views are diametrically opposed to all our values" said the chairman. The party was "thoroughly ashamed of such words", he said.

The scandal started when Mr Abadie, wrote in Le Nouvel Observateur magazine that he "could not be favourable to those destroyers of humanity, those who do not secure the future". He said homosexuality was "contrary to all norms" and posed "a permanent danger of paedophilia".

We have seen how homosexuals excuse paedophile relations in this country with leading homosexual activist Peter Tatchell defending sex with 9-year-old children!

When the Liberal Democrat MP, Sebastian Chenu, wrote to protest, saying Mr Abadie's views were a disgrace to the Republic, the senator could not contain himself. "My sad, sad sir," he wrote in reply. "Go bugger yourself and do not attempt to make any more hay out of this. I despise you too much to use more polite vocabulary." (Ed: Does this man know Ranting Ron?).

The party may not yet be free of the row Mr Abadie has caused it by stating traditional working class views. Jean-Luc Romero, a regional counsellor and Aids worker (read 'homosexual'), said the senator's remarks were "the rudest, most insulting and most anti-gay ever uttered by an elected official of the Republic". He has demanded that Mr Abadie be prosecuted for incitement of homophobia. We're not sure if holding anti-homosexual views is a punishable offence in France — however, the way the EU is going it soon will be throughout politically correct Europe.

BITS AND PIECES

AMERICA: The man-hunt for fugitive Eric Rudolf (blamed for bombing an abortuary and a homosexual club in 1997) has cost American tax-payers $25 Million. Money well spent no doubt!

BRAZIL: In a move against multi-faith and multi-cultural society, Brazilian police arrested two voodoo priests for the murder of a 6-year-old boy in a black magic ceremony. Bahia, the region where the murder happened, is the centre of the country's "rich Afro Brazilian religious culture" (sic). Animal sacrifice is practised, but human sacrifice is — supposedly — not allowed.

ENGLAND: University lecturer Tony Sewell blamed bad academic results for blacks on their culture. He claimed they were 'not interested' in academic results and preoccupied with consumer goods (trainers, jewellery etc.)

FINLAND: Somali and Iraqi immigrants attempted to murder two Finns by running them over and then stabbing one. Isn't multi-racism great?

ITALY: Cardinal Biffi of Bologna has spoken out against Muslim immigration into Europe in order to defend our "history and tradition".

SWEDEN: In August police arrested 27 youths for having a Nationalist meeting which had disturbed no-one and broken no laws. 1984...

VATICAN: Following provocation from homosexual activists the Pope stated that homosexuality is a "disorder", much to the annoyance of homosexuals, Marxists and liberal clerics.

LIBERAL DILEMMAS IN AMERICA

THE JEWISH Freemasonic Lodge B'nai B'rith and its campaigning group against "anti-Semitism" (sic) the Anti Defamation League (ADL) has attacked the Democratic Party Vice-President hopeful Senator Joseph Lieberman for pushing 'religious values' in his speeches.

Whilst Sen. Lieberman is careful to keep on an ecumenical 'multi-cult' theme, as befits (sick buckets at the ready!) a "multi-racial democracy" — cess pit — like America, even this is too much for the thugs of the ADL which even the Zionist Washington Times labels "aggressive".

The ADL called on Sen. Lieberman to "refrain from overt expressions of religious values and beliefs" in the Presidential race. "We feel very strongly, and we hope you would agree, that appealing along religious lines, or belief in 'God, is contrary to the American ideal," said Howard P. Berkowitz, ADL National Chairman, and National Director Abraham H. Foxman, in the statement.

The ADL uses the First Amendment (i.e. 'freedom of religion') in its statement. This is the same ADL that tries all means possible — including intimidation, burglary and spying — to stamp on the rights of Nationalist, Christian and Arab groups in America, in its role as Israel's bully boy in the United States.

Some liberals, who normally attack Republicans for using God in their speeches have held back from attacking Sen. Lieberman — presumably for fear of being labelled (and defamed as) "anti-Semites".

Sen. Lieberman has been making 'all the right noises' at ecumenical breakfasts and Black Church gatherings in his campaign. "As a people, we need to reaffirm our faith and renew the dedication of our nation and ourselves to God and God's purposes," he said to a congregation of 500 at the Fellowship Chapel, a Black church. Of course Mr. Lieberman looks over the fact that Blacks and Jews — and White Americans — are not "a people" and his God is not that of the Christian majority.

When the ADL attacked Lieberman's address to the Fellowship Chapel, a Lieberman spokesman said "our mission is not one of intolerance, but one of love." (Vomit!). Some liberals claim that Lieberman's religion and politics is "all inclusive", i.e. that homosexuals, abortionists etc. have nothing to fear.

How interesting it is to see that even this most liberal, wishy washy ecumenical religious talk — from an Orthodox Jew! — is too much for the Freemasonic ADL...

Meanwhile the right-wing Republicans are also bending over backwards (ahem!) to appear 'all inclusive', multi-racist, homosexual friendly and all the rest of the garbage. So whilst both parties are backed by Big Business and are pro-Israel, it is getting more and more difficult to tell the difference between the left-wing Tweedledee and the right-wing Tweedledum.

➡ The American TP put out a leaflet attacking the party system and the presidential election. The text is on their web-site <http://3rd.org>

PROUD TO BE INTOLERANT!

MEDIA MOGUL. Ted Turner used a United Nations Peace Summit to attack Christianity. Turner was introduced by New Age billionaire Maurice Strong, who said Turner had done more for peace, the environment and the United Nations than any other person. Nearly 1,000 delegates listened to the CNN boss as he denounced Christianity as "intolerant". The UN has consistently promoted immigration, abortion and homosexual "rights", whilst attacking Christian values.

WE MARCH IN BOLOGNA!

As Nationalists 'took back' the streets of Bologna the forces of the left, the right and the media turned against them! Our man was there to witness the events unfold.

by the local FC correspondent

Bologna was a real experience. About 3,000 assorted Reds, ex-partisans, immigrants and homosexuals turned out to "smash Fascism". In addition, there were a few hundred "streetfighting" anarchists. Although Forza Nuova had received all the legal permits two months before for a press conference, a parade on the streets, a street meeting, a conference for 400 in a hall with Radio Radicale present and a concert, featuring Massimo Morsello and three bands, in the evening in a different location, a journalist from L'Espresso newspaper got wind of the meeting, and built up an enormous hysteria... Clearly, Forza Nuova is really worrying them.

As a result, the Reds announced a counter demo. The police immediately banned the parade on the instructions of the right wing mayor. Then the hotel, where we were due to have the conference, reneged on their contract. Then the street meeting was banned. In other words, democracy in action.

Anyway, we 400 turned up outside the Forza Nuova office. The police said to disperse. We said no. We knew that they were worried about clashes — violence if it breaks out always reflects badly on the police, because it looks like they didn't do their job properly — so we played on this fear.

After a couple of hours of negotiation, they offered us a parade 7 miles outside the city, with police protection. We said no. We wanted a demonstration of some kind in the city centre. They said no. You can imagine that the tension was mounting by the minute.

As the number of Reds steadily increased, we learned that there was a division of opinion amongst the authorities. The Ministry of the Interior said no demonstration of any kind; the political police said that something had to be allowed to avoid disorder; the Carabinieri were neutral but very friendly on the streets. Four or five television stations turned up outside the Forza Nuova office, along with all the national press. The FN General Secretary, Roberto Fiore, gave any number of interviews and denounced this "sham democracy", and said that although the city had been Red for 50 years, we were going to get our rights. Tension mounted rapidly, and the local paper and radios reported regularly throughout the events.

A writ was served on the hotel for breach of contract, and we are putting in for big damages. As the Reds began to assemble and march illegally — kitted out in crash helmets, masks and with long clubs, rocks and molotovs — the police began to seek a solution. We eventually agreed a piazza in the city centre and which was ringed by coppers. As we came to the end of the meeting, a few Reds appeared in the park across the road. Within a minute, a dozen of our folk were over the wall and into the park. They kicked the crap of the b#####s! In went the riot police and helicopters were overhead. The riot police around us put on their helmets and broke out the tear gas launchers.

However, the Reds were either on the ground or running by then. We then went to the hall outside Bologna where the concert was scheduled. This went ahead peacefully and it was a great atmosphere. A Comrade from the English Third Position gave his first public discourse in Italian!

Meanwhile, the anarchists began fighting the coppers in Bologna and this went on for several hours. By 8 in the evening — we had been out from 9 in the morning — the Reds began breaking up into groups.

Whilst the concert was going on, some local youths began hunting down Reds. A couple of dozen got a real battering — some ending up in hospital. We also heard that the Social Centre, where the druggies, anarchists and reds congregate, was torched though I don't know if it took or not. It seemed local youths did not appreciate them matching through their town with molotovs and sticks!

The TV news was full of the Forza Nuova rally, as were the local papers. The Reds not only didn't win, but they looked like complete idiots. They accused the police of brutality — shock, horror! — but the police were forthright in saying that we caused no real trouble and the blame lay squarely with the Left. My own experience of the Carabinieri officers was very positive. They obviously hate the Great Unwashed with venom, so I am sure that a lot of Reds got their share of it that day! Repubblica in the region gave over three pages to the event, and Mr. Fiore managed to get a lot of points over. As he concluded on the streets: "After 50 years of the Reds, we back and we're back for good!"

The kosher-right "respectable" Alleanza Nazionale nationally took a pro-anti-fascist line — work that one out! — although the local AN were pretty good. The councillors in Bologna said that they were appalled by the Mayor's action, and the leader of AN in the town turned up to speak at our meeting as did a few Fiamma folk. I am sure that all of them will be attacked/expelled by their bosses for their "extremism". All in all, a very good day and one that is going to bring more people to Forza Nuova's banner. Four months ago, there was nothing in Bologna. Now, there are already 150 folk involved, and this is likely to lead to more.

OPPOSING SODOMITES IN ROME!

FORZA NUOVA led a march in Rome against a homosexual festival. The homosexuals, who had the support of many politicians and 'celebrities' did not have the support of most Romans and even the Catholic Church made some utterances against the degenerate perverts.

Forza Nuova has, once again, shown that it is willing to make a stand against the ills afflicting Italy — whether Communism, homosexuality, abortion or NATO's murderous wars.

Indeed, Third Positionists seem to be the only people willing to openly oppose homosexuality. The kosher-right Alleanza Nazionale, like others further afield, refuses to condemn homosexuality outright — presumably afraid to appear too "extreme".

A rally planned for the end of the homosexual 'festival' to further show Romans' disgust was cancelled by Forza Nuova following the death of Massimo Morsello's 13-year-old daughter. Even political opponents in Italy recognised that this gesture for a little girl went beyond political differences... not that this stopped Searchlight's Zionists claiming that Forza Nuova somehow gave in... but then, we're used to their gutter tactics!

AFRICA ADDIO!

THE VIDEO Africa Addio will effect you for a long time! With the passing of Colonial Africa, a New Africa emerged. It was an Africa of Marxism, murder and massacres. Thousands of Whites and Arabs were butchered. Millions of Blacks died at the hands of savages. Tribal warfare engulfed the continent.

This documentary was briefly shown in England in 1966 — since when it has been conveniently "lost". See the massacres. The shameful, pathetic scenes will shock you! As South Africa descends into chaos, this video is a timely reminder.

THE MARTYRDOM OF WILLIAM JOYCE

Black Book Vol. 4

WHATEVER YOUR ideology or wherever you are from, you are bound to have heard of William Joyce. But what have you heard?

That he was a traitor? That he was 'Lord Haw Haw'? That he was hung by the British State as a British subject?

The truth is much different and much more complex and the truth of the matter is that when it comes to William Joyce — as with many others from across Europe who decided to fight with Germany in WW2 — we have to sift through all the war propaganda, still 'doing the rounds' today to get anywhere near the truth.

The Martyrdom of William Joyce, by Michael Walsh will help Nationalists and students of the WW2 period find out some of the facts behind the myth and the legend that is William Joyce.

As the publishers' introduction to The Martyrdom of William

Joyce says:

"If Nationalists are to reclaim our history then it is vital that we start putting the matter right. In publishing this account by Mr. Walsh, we hope to establish the facts for scholars of this period and to make Nationalists realise they we do not need to rely on the twisted, vengeful bile of political opponents or the 50-year-old war propaganda and lies of a failed system."

This booklet, the fourth in the BLACK BOOK series published by Final Conflict, is not only an excellent introduction to William Joyce, but provides an interesting insight to the man behind the 'Lord Haw Haw' myth, the truth behind an unlawful murder by the British State and the ideology and thinking of a leading proponent of British Fascism who went on to

The Martyrdom of William Joyce is the fourth volume in the BLACK BOOK series. This series is designed to tell 'Nationalist history' from a Nationalist perspective. The titles published to date are:

Volume 2: The Apotheosis of the Jew by A.K. Chesterton. 50p.

Read the truth about the man, whom the American magazine Life said 50% of the British listened in to, and who paid the ultimate price in 1946. From his family background to his days with the British Fascisti, the British Union of Fascists and the National Socialist League, to his radio days and his execution by the British State.

JUDAISM'S STRANGE GODS

MANY PEOPLE would have us believe that Jews are very similar to Christians. After all, they believe in the Old Testament so we have a lot in common don't we?

JUDAISM'S STRANGE GODS by Michael Hoffman screams at us: "NO!"

Jews of today have very little in common with Christians. Far from being "brothers in Abraham" — according to John Paul II — Hoffman shows that Jews are completely opposed to Christianity.

Whether we look at the Pharisees who brought about the Crucifixion of Christ, The Talmud with its hatred of Christ and Christians (and its bizarre sexual ambiguities) or the occultist Kabbala — Judaism is obviously very far removed from what liberals would have us believe!

Only recently a rabbi in Occupied Palestine put this into sharp relief when he claimed that "holocaust victims" were suffering for sins they'd committed in past lives.

Since when is reincarnation taught in the Old Testament?

This is straight out of the eastern occult rites preached by the Jewish rabbis.

This book will not only be of interest to Christians, but to all Nationalists who wish to know exactly what Judaism is.

There are a lot of myths doing the rounds... This book is thoroughly researched and should be required reading for all!

THE GREAT UNWASHED

A TALE OF WOE AMONGST 'THE SELF-STYLED WORKERS' CHAMPIONS

THE LAST FEW months have been anything but good for the forces of 'the left'. On this page we present just a few of the best stories to come from the forces of 'the great unwashed'.

A HERO'S TALE!

FINAL CONFLICT was the first to break the news about the sad demise of that well-loved druggie loser Matty 'Blag' Roberts through the FC daily e-mail newsletter (see FC #24 for details).

And lo and behold, following in our footsteps, Red Action were kind enough to give the weirdo an obituary in their latest cleverly titled 'Red Action' magazine.

But the middle class heroes were just a little bit shy. Far from dying of a drug overdose... Brave Matty died "in tragic circumstances".

RA were clearly embarrassed because they were keen to stress that he was "never formally a Red Action member and whilst having drifted out of politic circles" — and consciousness, presumably "in recent years...", he was still "regarded with a great deal of affection". Especially when on horse tranquillisers!

They finish, not with an R.I.P. — after all, there's no heaven for the Red Comrades! — but with a quote from Matty, the EMI signee himself in that radical, revolutionary paper New Musical Express telling everyone to stop "sitting around" and join "the struggle", presumably he wanted them to lie around drugged up to the eye-balls and join the struggle to score more drugs?

OTHER UNORTHODOX TALES

NON-TOUR: The Angelic Upstarts had to put off a tour of America because of "immigration-related problems" announced the organisers Insurgence Records. We're not told if this was because Americans were opposed to their pro-immigrant stance... Insurgence Records announced plans to release an Upstarts CD and a Blaggers IYV video (IYV - In Your Vein).

PARTY POOPERS: Some naughty people in Belfast and its environs have been putting up KEEP SECTION 28 posters with the Socialist Party logo on them. The SP are notoriously pro-homosexual, regardless of the fact that homosexuals are statistically wealthier and more Middle Class than us normal types... But then Socialists have always been Middle Class.

OUTRAGEOUS: Peter Tatchell, the pro-paedophile homosexual activist turned up in Ulster for some sort of 'Gay Pride' week. Whilst there he couldn't help but attack the Presbyterian Minister David McIlveen. Rev. McIlveen, who organises protests against homosexual events, said he was prepared to meet Tatchell. He added that homosexuality is an abomination.

HE SMASHED THE PEACE STONE

AAMER ANWAR was the leading member of the SWP's Anti-Nazi League who smashed the Hess Peace Stone in Scotland (see FC #7). He has now resurfaced as a solicitor in Paisley with law firm TF Reid. He is also in the National Civil Rights Movement (presumably the rights of farmers to put up monuments doesn't count) as well as an organiser of 'Glasgow Welcomes Refugees'. Anwar criticised newspapers for reporting gypsy crime in Scotland, even though the gypsies were given fully furnished flats and full benefits on arrival...

LIFTING THE LID ON: SEARCHLIGHTS

REGULAR FC readers will know about this bunch of strange miscreants. Thieves, thugs, terrorists and paedophiles have played their part in making Searchlight what it is.

Quite a few interesting things have happened in the Searchlight stable of late.

LOST COURT CASE: Writer and researcher Morris Riley took the publisher of Searchlight, Gerry Gable, columnist Ray Hill and the Russell Press to court for a character defamation that appeared in the August 1993 edition of Searchlight. Being described as "potty" and "a misfit" was deemed out of order and Mr. Riley, who wrote "PHILBY: THE HIDDEN YEARS", received £5,000 in damages.

We hope that Searchlight don't get tempted to use their Lottery money to pay off this embarrassing bill!

Somewhat bizarrely Mr. Hill claimed that he had not written the offending article, which appeared under his by-line. This confirms what many suspected, that the real author of this garbage and lies is none other than Gerry Gable.

Mr. Gable now openly writes the column which replaced Hill's, fittingly called News from the Sewers.

Mr. Gable has been successfully sued by Sun newspaper columnist Garry Bushell, publisher Alexander Baron and now author Mr. Riley. He was also responsible for the £500,000 lawsuit against the BBC's Panorama programme in 1984. We also understand that Mr. Roberto Fiore of Forza Nuova has recently issued Mr. Gable a writ for an article that defamed Mr. Fiore.

For more information on the Panorama lawsuit, Hill's thuggery, Gable's paedophile hero etc. see Final Conflict #20 — still available from FC for £1.50 plus postage.

PRESS COMPLAINT UPHELD: Mr. Patrick Harrington of the Third Way group made a complaint to the Press Complaints Commission about an article in Searchlight which identified his 13-year-old nephew.

Searchlight was required, by law, to publish the PCC adjudication "in full and with due prominence". According to Third Way it has still failed to do so.

STILL BEING NAUGHTY: Searchlight continues to publish the details of Nationalist activists, in an effort to have them attacked. FC liaised with an activist of Leicestershire NF who had his details published in the Zionist rag. The police took steps to protect his family as it was obvious the attempt by Searchlight was to 'set up' the activist and his family for a physical attack.

Despite various complaints from Nationalist activists who have been named and the obvious links between the dubious mag and its 'Searchlight Educational Trust', the Charity Commission still refuses to take any action.

SEARCHLIGHT BANNED: The anti-White Zionist mag has been banned from the synagogue premises of Edware Yeshurun shul. The synagogue banned Searchlight because of its explicit nature.

THE LYING CAMERA: Mike Cohen is Searchlight's resident photographer. You know - Searchlight, the magazine that works with the police, that defends 'democracy'? How quaint then that Mr. Cohen is also the photographer for The New Worker, the paper of the New Communist Party of Britain, which still supports Marxist revolution, Leninism etc. How cosy that such an outfit is linked to Special Branch's mates at Searchlight.

PASSAGE TO PASSAU

OVER THE weekend of the 27th of May 2000, around six thousand Nationalist militants gathered to celebrate two days of 'National Resistance' organised by the German NPD.

The following report is from a Third Position activist who was invited to attend.

The Nibelungenhalle in the picturesque town of Passau, on the German-Austrian border, is a massive indoor hall where political groups of all kinds hold their staged rallies. Indeed, even the government parties use it on a regular basis. The thing which is most interesting, however, is that none of the German government parties can fill it, whilst on May 27th of this year, our comrades of the NPD not only filled the hall, but it was positively overflowing.

A few of the speakers L-R: Udo Voigt the leader of the NPD; Wilfred Bon Owen, worker in WW2 Propaganda Ministry; Horst Mahler, former Red Army Faction activist.

This was the second time in two years that the NPD had organized a Day of National Resistance, and it was the second time that the hall proved barely large enough. The rally is organized by the NPD, but on such a National Day, they invite other nationalists to participate to show the strength of Nationalism in the country. Thus, various skinhead organizations, local movements, magazines, music outlets, Nationalist merchandising outfits and so on were well represented.

Also present this year were foreign delegates from Sweden, England, Ireland, Italy, Greece, the Czech Republic, the Ukraine, Austria, Spain, Portugal, Belgium, Romania and France. They were present not only to witness the growing strength of the NPD, but also to demonstrate that the Third Position nationalist movements of Europe were coming ever closer together. Such rallies are becoming a practical testimony to European nationalists demand for a Europe of 100 Flags.

For some weeks before, the Reds and anarchists had promised "to smash the NPD", but in the event only a motley assortment of Red dross and down and outs even got vaguely near to the hall. Numbering only a few hundred of some of the most unwashed vermin that this writer has ever seen, it was only enlivened by the occasional drug addict or queer losing control of himself! The impact on the meeting and on the public was zero.

The rally began at midday with a rousing roll of drums. Dozens of TV cameras and photographers were filming every second as the platform party entered the hall to cheering from the massive crowd. Led by NPD Chairman, Udo Voigt, who has led the movement in the last 5 years or so, the platform party, followed by dozens of flags, processed solemnly to the stage - music blaring out of the speakers, drowned out only by the spontaneous cheering of militants. The cheering was partly inspired by the atmosphere of the day, but also by the fact that Voigt is responsible for the greatest surge in German nationalist fortunes in 30 years.

Although there were foreign delegates from many countries, the delegates from the Third Position and Italy's Forza Nuova were given pride of place on the platform, a reflection of the deep friendship that exists between the three movements.

The whole day was a mixture of political speeches and live music, whilst good food and beer flowed freely from morning until 11.00 in the evening when a great day came to an end.

One of the most fascinating speakers of the day was Horst Mahler. It is not a name well known in nationalist circles outside of Germany, but it will be a name well known in the coming couple of years. Why? Because back in the late Sixties/early Seventies, Horst Mahler was a leading left wing agitator. More, he was the founder of the terrorist group, the Red Army Faction, which is often known as the Baader Meinhof Group. His presence was due to the fact that he became convinced just two or three years ago that the only serious opposition to the New World Order was coming from Nationalism. He saw the 'reformed' Socialists and Communists for what they were - hypocrites and hot air. He saw the need for a continuing struggle against Global Capitalism, but who was leading it? He concluded that only the NPD in Germany was genuinely committed to this struggle. He also remarked that whilst every degenerate group in Germany were given "their rights", the NPD were being systematically persecuted. This in itself was proof that the System feared Nationalism, and Nationalism alone.

Towards the end of the evening, Roberto Fiore, General Secretary of Forza Nuova, spoke for about 15 minutes to the crowd.

Emphasizing the need to fight Brussels, the need to ban abortion and raise a numerous, new generation of Europeans, he said that already the Occult Powers that held sway in Europe - but which were visibly losing their hold on ordinary people - were worried that "once again, the Italian and German peoples have begun to march together". He might have added that this time, all of the peoples of Europe are marching together, so that Europe from Galway to the Urals is purged of the Capitalist, Socialist, Zionist and Masonic powers that have for too long lived like parasites on the body of Europe.

Envious that you were not there? You should be, but don't worry. The whole affair was recorded professionally, and will be available as a video in the coming weeks, although many others watched the whole thing live because it was made available live on the Internet!

In friendship, the European Peoples are marching towards their National Destinies together. NO MORE BROTHER WARS!

The NPD is successful because it has not watered down its radical Third Positionist Nationalism, has attracted Germans from all backgrounds and has taken its message to the streets.

"FROM IRELAND TO THE BALKANS"

THE FOLLOWING account of the Passau meeting comes from a Legionary Third Position representative from Romania.

May the 27th, 6.45am. Passau. Our coach is allowed to enter the large plaza surrounded by an impressive police deployment. Now we're inside, we won't get out until late in the evening. We step comfortably out of the bus and walk into the Nibelungenhalle.

After us, arrive numerous coaches from all the lands and regions of Germany. They are full with young German comrades.

Hundreds. Thousands. The NPD shows up!

Eventually, from all the coaches, 6000 NPD Comrades will pour into the Nibelungenhalle. To them add the Honour guests - mostly heroes and survivors of the last century of struggle against the evil forces; then the foreign guests - invited from all corners of Europe, "from Ireland to the Balkans" - as Sascha Rossmüller, the Jugend Nationaldemokraten NPD leader mentioned; and — of course — the bunch of 'secret' police observers (a totally different species from the street police outside) who reserved a special 'lodge' on the balcony.

In the main hall, facing a stylish scene, parallel rows of tables with chairs are waiting for the big 'wedding' to begin. Around this main hall, a wide 'L-shaped' corridor allows both the intense traffic of the participants as well as the stalls of the NPD and friendly supporters who sell all manner of goodies from books to Viking cuddly toys.

Keeping such an impressive mass of people confined in one 'box' for more than 12 hours is not an easy task. The NPD 'Order' men and women did an excellent job.

As an experienced observer, I can say that nowhere in Europe could a gathering close to the high standards that the NPD have achieved, have taken place.

Anyway this 'perfect' organization and the capability of the NPD to gather six thousand people remains a proof of the Movement's real political strength amongst the genuine German people who care and believe in their future, in our common future.

On the other side lay the puppet nationalist political parties, which enjoy no mass support, but survive out of the bankrolls of weird characters. This is no new thing. Such are the counter measures often used by the liberal circles to distract attention from the real thing. If those counter measures weren't there, then all the confused voters would have boosted the NPD inside the German Parliaments.

What makes us so sure about this? Mainly the figures obtained at the polls while the party is under pressure from all sides of the establishment. As no one 'up there' loves them, it is obvious that their percentages are real and their voters are determined to fight on for their option. In two words, the NPD shows itself as a LIVING FORCE!

What we want to believe is that the speeches we heard in Passau will soon materialise into practice, and won't remain simple words blown by the wind. Orators who insist on the essential meaning of the spiritual struggle and on the permanent mind and heart contact with the fallen heroes and martyrs, prove that they master the ultimate means to gain victory.

A simple event now. A hasty comrade, with emotion in his voice, brings a short announcement for the audience. He says that four coaches on their way to the Passau meeting were attacked by red anarchist mobs in the Baden Wuerttemberg area. Before he can finish, as one all the audience raises on feet, looks at the secret police lodge and shouts: 'Where were the police?'

This kind of instant reaction is no result of some orchestration or rehearsal. It is the pure German national nervous system. Happy the few nations that still enjoy such a healthy organism!

The Roman Centurion Cornelius once reached perfection over the material world by the 'daily' faith in the word: "For I am a man under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this,' and he does it". Like this faithful soldier, the Germans need no more faith... Now is the time to spread that faith and seek the German rebirth!

DÜSSELDORF AND BEYOND - BANNING THE NPD?

ON JULY 27th a bomb went off at Düsseldorf railway station and injured ten immigrants — six of them Jews.

Of course, the similarity to the other staged bombing which was blamed on Third Positionists — Bologna, 1980 — put many people on immediate alert. As with Bologna, blame fell on the Nationalists straight away. There was no evidence, no proof — but the enemy media had a field day.

Following the bomb there were the mandatory (Mossad inspired?) Jewish cemetery desecrations and synagogue daubings. The German media then reported every minor skirmish involving skinheads and German youths — continually blaming the NPD.

The same "outraged media" chose to totally ignore the violent Turkish and Kurdish gangs who targeted any "Nazi looking" German youths, which resulted in anyone with short hair, blond hair or who was neat looking being assaulted by the same thugs who make German streets so unsafe.

Of course the German Chancellor, Gerhard Schröder was keen to blame the NPD for every social evil (whilst politicians like him swan around like 'the untouchables') and began talk of banning the (perfectly legal!) NPD.

Despite all the State pressure being brought to bear on the NPD its leader, Udo Voigt, announced that because of all the publicity they had received 6,000 enquiries from the German public and 500 new members. The NPD is certainly well organised and disciplined enough to ride out this State-inspired storm, provided they escape being banned — which many commentators (pro and anti NPD) say will be the case.

The NPD have no doubts about the State-background to this entire debacle. As Sascha Rossmüller of the NPD stated, "the organisational structure of the NPD is democratic exactly in the way the law dictates. So I assume that it's an attempt to criminalise the NPD one more time and divide people from us".

Given that the NPD is attracting people from the former 'left' as well as the 'right', it is obvious that the German State is worried about the growth of a real alternative in Germany - a radical, Third Positionist, Nationalist alternative!

Furthermore, there appears to be an old enemy of the NPD behind the drive to have them banned. Herr Rossmüller continues: "The fact that Mr. Beckstein from the Bavarian Home Secretary was the first to demand the banning... is no accident. This is an act of revenge. In 1993 Mr Beckstein was responsible for banning a party congress in Bavaria." The NPD won its case against Beckstein's illegal ban which meant a lot of money for the NPD! Now Mr. Beckstein is putting his neck on the constitutional block once more!

We also know that pressure is being brought to bear because of the links between the NPD and other Third Positionist movements. For example, 'Radio Free Europe' (CIA-backed) put out a broadcast, by the leftist William Totok, from Berlin, complaining that the NPD had made links with Romanian Legionaries and Irish Third Positionists. It is certainly no coincidence that the Düsseldorf explosion happened after the successful Passau meeting which brought together so many TP Movements and so many German Nationalists!

POKER FACE

1. Can you start by giving some of the background to the band - how you got together etc?

The band started over 10 years ago. There have been at least 10 different versions of it, meaning any time someone left and we replaced him and pictures that qualifies as a version.

Most people can stay with something for about a year. When they realize its going to take real work to get to where the band needs to go, most bale. They feel that just because in their mind they are a rock GOD things should come easily and we should be signed like overnight. That's just not a reality. The Poker Face of today started over 2½ years ago with the addition of Dennis Beidler on Bass. Once Dennis came on board there was finally a real anchor. Someone I could grow with, and build. We started recording 'Sex, Lies and Politik's' about six months into Dennis joining the band. It took the subsequent two years to finish. Along the way we picked up a hot guitarist by the name of Brett Griffiths. Initially he came on board as our drummer to finish the drum tracks in the studio. But after Howie Dean showed renewed interest in Poker Face again we welcomed him back into the fold and Brett moved over to Lead Guitar nicely. Howie had previously been the drummer for Poker Face when we where recording our second disc - NEXT!

Poker Face is like the YES of the Lehigh Valley (Allentown-Bethlehem-Easton). We have had some of the best players come in and out of the band, stay for awhile and leave, but some have come back and stayed.

2. Your political line is quite 'in your face'. Are all the band comfortable with this?

Yes all are quite comfortable with the genre we write and the market and masses we are trying to reach. Some of us are more well versed in the Politik's of this world than others, but everyone is always reading-learning-asking questions. We know things are wrong and we are identifying the people-groups that are violating the rights of the masses. It is a small group of power mad-Kontrol freaks.

"How can we be neutral when our national security team is comprised only of Zionist-American Jews?" - Poker Face.

3. Some 'Nationalists' concentrate on Race, Nationhood etc. PF seem to also look at social issues and the injustices suffered by the workingman. Presumably you feel quite bitter about the great social inequalities in America - and do you think patriots need to reclaim the 'social' campaigning ground from 'the left' who have aligned themselves with internationalism, the United Nations and the whole New World Order thing?

We concentrate on our Freedoms as God intended them to be (hence our Inalienable Rights written about in our Declaration of Independence). We are here for HIS pleasure not our own selfish needs. He wants all of humanity to be truly free so we can come to LOVE HIM on our own without our LOVE being feared into us, bribed, guiltd, cajoled, etc... If you were a father, wouldn't you want your son to Love you truly? When you stop living for yourself and get this Big picture, it makes everything else much simpler to deal with.

As the Populist-Nationalists we are (Populism is Government by those who supply money for the bills and blood for the wars. It means government of, by, and for the producing and creating hard-working Americans) we need to bring a whole new dialogue to the table. We have allowed the Cultural-Bolsheviks to determine our vocabulary. They define our terms. Making the good bad and the bad good. It is time that we confronted these spin meisters and put terms in common every day language that the common person can easily understand and then put them into practice.

Once we have an educated populace, it will be easy to dismantle the lies that have grown up all around us over these many many years. If the common person understands that the UN was created, not for them, but by the supra-Internationalist elite as a way to manage us sheople and basically have the Communist Manifesto as its doctrine, then we will be able to destroy this cabal of thieves and whore mongers. Somewhere I read that the UN is an outgrowth of the original Dutch East India Trading company.

4. Why the decision to be an openly political band - when your music could stand quite well 'on its own'?

Why not. The current crop of musicians are basically political, but their agenda is one of the left. It seems if you want your 'STAR' to rise in Music Industry all you have to do is to write songs that promote the left agenda. There are many, many bands that are writing songs against the peoples' ability to own and use guns for our self defence. On this issue alone the two bands that come to the top of the list are Smashing Pumpkins 'Disarm' and Pearl Jam 'Glorified G'. There are many other bands promoting abortion on demand, glorifying homosexuality etc...

We felt that there should at least be some balance to what the common person listens to and has access to. We hope to encourage other younger bands to concentrate on using their music to inform the rest of the people to abuses occurring everywhere by government bodies and officials to the Corporate Monopolies buying up and owning everything in the process. They are all becoming 'ONE'. Don't the dumb dumbs get it, that every time MAN tries to become ONE, God destroys Man's system ala Babel, Assyria, Egypt, Greece, Rome etc.?

5. From your literature you seem to gig very often. Are the gigs a success?

Yes and things are getting better everyday with more and better gigs coming our way. We live a dual life in the sense that we play to our regular commercial oriented crowd that goes out to clubs to enjoy themselves for the night out after a long hard week at work. At these gigs, it's basically the music and the harmonies that touch-inspire the people. If they dig what they hear, they make contact with us be it by signing up to get our newsletters, email Elists we send out or they buy the discs. Then after they they get inoculated with our freedom virus, they begin to come around to the political side. One must plant seeds and allow time for the individual to grow on his own time frame. If a fan becomes aware thru the club scene that is bonus.

Our second kind of gig, is the outright Political Gigs we have done and will be doing more of. We have been fortunate to have played various events in our nation's capitol, Washington DC. We have played at the Lincoln Memorial for a Pro Second Amendment Rally (Gun Rights to keep the tyranny down), played at the Washington Monument for a pro Impeachment Rally of president Clinton, the Capitol Steps that Congress meets at for a Pro Rights rally. We have several other gigs coming up whether it is to help Pat Buchanan (Populist Nationalist) become president against the 2 plutocratic-candidates of (Socialist-Bush and Communist-Gore) to helping the Second Amendment Sisters counter a Hollywood-Klinton Administration backed MillionMomMarch against guns happening Mothers day May 14th, to playing at a bunch of VetRock 2000 gigs across America that promotes the welfare of our Vietnam Vets.

We would like to start handing out this little book called the 'Citizens Rule Book' to every one of our fans at the concerts, because it gives them a nice little overview of their freedoms and what their Americanism really stands for. It can be gotten from Whitten Printers (602)258 6406, 1001 S. 5th St., Phoenix, AZ 85004. The books cost about a dollar.

6. Do you find people who are 'cheesed off' with the way things are going in America contact you - after hearing a CD or a concert - and say that your line made some sort of sense of the mess?

Sex, Lies & Politiks

Yes definitely. With the release of this latest disc we are finding that we are reaching a wide swath of Americans that are sick and tired of their government being soooooo intrusive in their lives. Big Brother today is passing law after law making even the most basic want or need ILLEGAL. Government is supposed to be a negative force in ones life, meaning it is there to insure our rights. It is supposed to be restrained by the chains of the Constitution. But sadly the Prostiticians have been successfully watering down our great document, so today's governmental beast is out of control....Can we all say ECHELON?

7. Alternatively, do you get people slagging you off or calling you hate-mongers etc.?

Not really too much yet. But I am sure as we grow and start to reach more and more people, there will be a critical mass where the Lamestream Press will be sent out to do Character Assassination pieces on us. I've seen them do it time and time again. If they can't kill the message they attack the messenger by belittling him or outright lying about his persona. I have seen them do it to Pat Buchanan. They called him every thing in the book. Last but not least they pegged him with that ever deathly-tag ANTI-Semite. When Pat came out with his new book, 'A Republic, not an Empire' the leftist press screed the usual anti-Semite crap, Nazi/Hitler lover s##t, so they could dissuade the sheople from even reading it for themselves. Fortunately it pretty much backfired and put Pat's book on the New York Times best seller list. :-)

We are Americans first not Racists. Best thing to have happened for every race is that they became Americans and got to experience somewhat of a free society. Most people that came here was thru some form of slavery/Indentured servitude/ or outright working the s##t jobs, that I get tired of hearing about the need to payback any race for previous miss deeds. Its time everyone of every colour got over it. It is a tool used by the communists to divide and conquer.

8. Have any anti-Freedom groups tried to cancel your gigs or tried to bring pressure on the radio stations that carry your music?

Not that I can point out directly, but there has been some feeling that some events or organizations have shied away due to outside pressure. As for radio, we are still not really on the Commercial networks radar screens. That could change instantly as radio stations both Commercial, College, Satellite, Internet and Micro Stations start picking it up.

9. Sticking with the radio stations, you mention that some of your first breaks came via the small radio stations dotted around. Can you tell us something about these stations and what they mean to your average American?

Where we are having the greatest success is on the Talk Radio - Political shows that are springing up everywhere around this nation trying their best to inform the sheople to the abuses of their rights. Also due to new regulations from our Communication Czar FCC they have allowed for the ability of Micro-Stations to spring up. We have sold many copies to those operators. Internet is also becoming a main means of reaching our targeted market.

What it means to the average American is that he no longer needs to be held captive by Corporate-Radio and its bland-numbing of the aural senses.

10. Your earlier recordings weren't as guitar-centered as 'Sex Lies n Politik's'. Was this a conscious decision or something that happened 'by accident'?

I started out writing this disc with my long time friend Eric Beebe, who owns the studio, The Farm, where the last 2 discs have been recorded. I was beginning to pick up the guitar about that time, as he was one of my teachers and co-writers. For other reasons I will leave to a future discussion, I wanted to write from a different perspective, a new canvas so to speak in which to paint from. Many times I heard things a certain way that the guitar player of the band just couldn't get or play what was in my head, so the best way to deal with that is to learn the damn instrument yourself, no?

We definitely have been enjoying how 'the new sound' is being received. We are an ever evolving band and our sound grows along with it. It's cool that our options are limitless. We have a great capability with the talent we have playing together right now. It is exciting to see where we are headed with the next disc.

Later this year we will be releasing our 4th disc which will be a 'LIVE' disc called 2/3rds LIVE. It will have 8-9 of our best tunes LIVE with 4 new studio songs that are already written and are in the process of being recorded.

We are modelling our careers similar to that of early-U2, their third disc was WAR. It kicked ass. It brought me into knowing them in the first place. Then they came out with their live disc called, 'Under a Blood Red Sky'. It gave them time to put out there next evolving disc called 'Unforgettable Fire'. We too will be following up with an epic piece ala Pink Floyd's 'The Wall' called 'And the Lies Came Down'. It will be a double disc set that deals with a common theme of a central character Johnny before the war, during the war and after the war. Which war do you say, well Mix in a little George Orwells '1984' with the Bibles 'Revelation Chapter', throw in George Washington's vision of the 3rd Great War that will hit the States plus a dash of modern day politik, and you get the flavour of what the new disc will be....

11. Do you think this guitar sound has opened your music to new audiences?

YES, YES, YES. Even though I was raised a keyboardist, I know the realities of rock music. The fans in general really, really like the rocking sound of the guitar. No keyboard-synthesizer is ever going to replace that rocking-chunka sound that smacks you right in the gut and gets you moving-jumping all over.

We hear this comment the most from old and new fans alike. They tell us how they liked the old sound of Poker Face but now they LOVE the new sound of Poker Face and where we are headed.

12. How well do you think your music will be received in Europe?

I believe the overall sound will be received well. I have made many European friends, like yourselves, that dig the music, and the message. We are not looking to have everyone in Europe love us, mainly those who have eyes to see and ears to hear. For most in Europe the political message will fall on deaf ears. Like most of America today, Europeans have sucked off the nipple of Socialism so long that they really don't understand what true personal God given rights really are. Thru ignorance they might initially react negatively to the overall message.

13. One of the problems listeners in England and Europe may have is your stance on drugs. They will say, for example, that drugs are linked with crime, theft, mugging etc. and to legalise drugs will not stop the crime. Also, drugs make people lethargic, violent etc. [depending on the drug] and that shouldn't be legitimised. What is your response?

Sad, truly sad. For it is the illegalities off the drugs that brings the crime with it. We here in America already had a stint with Drug Prohibition. It was with alcohol. All it did was created a super class of criminals that we still have with us today. The criminals are both street and government. Drugs are illegal because they make a s##tload of cash for very many interconnected groups of people. The War On Drugs (WOD) is the cancer eating this whole world alive, and we let the bastards do this to us. The Drugs Enforcement Agency (DEA, or 'the real DEALERS') is an organization that exists solely to bust the competition. We have a term here in America called BOHICA - Bend Over Here It Comes Again. And right now, we're getting it quite a bit!

The reason we focus so much on LEGALIZING all drugs, is because they have used these bogus illegal laws to nullify our God given rights in the name of DRUGS. To be truly free you as a responsible person have the right to indulge in anything you want as long as in the pursuit of that freedom you do not violate the rights of others. That means you can grow your own Natural Pharmacopeia in your own back yard, ingest the product of said labour with out government interference. In the pursuit of ones happiness also means the pursuit of ones misery. If you are one of the addicted few two things will happen. One, nature will evolve you out of existence thru your over use of a drug, or that individual will seek help for his addictions. Leave the rest of us average-non violating rights' users, ALONE.

14. Being in America, where the FBI and CIA are based, how would you say your 'bod in the street' can hope to oppose these powerful forces?

Education, Education, Education, and PRAY. These groups are really comprised of very scared little men behind the curtain ala 'Wizard of Oz'. An educated populace will defund these gangsters. They are used as the private army/police force to keep us minions down. We are to be transformed into slaves of the Global-Corporate Plantation. No one will be immune if we don't stop them now. Otherwise watch Gods 'Revelation' play itself out in our lifetime. Ever read or understand the parable of the fig tree? If you do then you know the count down started the day the Balfour Declaration was implemented and Israel was reborn 1948. Not a generation will pass before one sees these events unfold.

15. Abortion has been quite a big issue in America over the last decade. Some bands got together to form 'Rock for Life'. Would you consider supporting such a thing?

Abortion.... Well if you look at the stats here in the states most of the abortions have been to European-Americans-Whites. It has been an infanticide of over 30 million Americans, a whole generation has been lost. Sad. But Abortion is just one plank of the Population Control measures the elites have implemented against us. Euthanasia and Homosexuality have also played a role and it is growing. All 3 prongs are an attempt at zero-sum population. If the kontrol freaks could have their way they would cut us down to about 400 million dumbled down slaves to maintain their needs. That means at present levels 11 out of every 12 of us need to be GONE. (There is what we call the American Stonehenge in Alberton Georgia called 'The Georgia Guide Stones' where in 8 different languages on 4 HUGE-ass granite-stones is inscribed '#1. Maintain the human population under 400million people worldwide living in perpetual balance with nature.....' sounds like a bunch of New Age crap to me sort of like the Paganstine prophesies...er I mean Celestine Prophecies put out by Time-Warner books)

As for participation in a concert that's pro-life, sure why not!

16. Do you think Clinton is just a terrible president -- or one in a long line of those who lord it over American people?

There is not enough room in this interview to go into all of Klinton's misdeeds. Yes he is a terrible president. A criminal to many of us, but we have no means of redress of grievances against his criminality. So we suffer until the paradigm changes in the near future.

We haven't had a good president that took on the plutocratic forces since the days of Andrew Jackson (early 1800) who threw out the International-Banksters of his day. The current crop is more of the same lame thang except for Mr. Pat Buchanan.

17. You do your song 'Illuminati' in English and in Spanish. It seems that many American patriots see the rise in the use of Spanish (especially in the classroom) as an erosion of Anglo-Saxon America and growing Hispanic immigration. What would you say to those who might say you shouldn't sing in Spanish?

First I would tell them to go b####er off. All the peoples of the world need to know about real freedom. Need to know who is controlling the World political game. That we are trying to reach out to 2/3rds of the worlds populations by singing in these two languages is a good thing. S###t, my dad is Mexican (his parents are from Italy and Spain respectively, EUROPEAN Stock). Except he came to America legally. Went thru the naturalization process LEGALLY.

What I am against is our government's push in our schools and society to cater to a foreign influence by having Spanish interpretations alongside of the English version. It doesn't help the immigrants to be absorbed as Americans. It keeps them in a comfort zone where they don't have to assimilate... i.e. become an American. I am against my governments non-protection of our borders so illegal Mexicans, Guatemalans, Equadorans, Chinese, Bulgarians, etc.... can pour thru them and start to populate our south west with UnAmerican ideologies, to the point the Commies are trying to rouse up this invasion force into an actual military threat under the banner of La Raza. Take back the southwest from the bad-Gringo.

My answer to the problem is simple. Let's truly fund a rebel group that topples the socialist Dictatorship. Mexico that has long been ruled by the 36 rich families that own it. Once they succeed we will give them a copy of our original Constitution so that they too can experience real freedoms. Then there wouldn't be the need for them to come up north anymore seeking a better life. They would have it there for themselves.

18. As you oppose power elites like Freemasons, how do you square the George Washington material on your CD, when Washington was himself a Freemason? And what would you say to people who might say that the American Revolution was taken over by Freemasons?

Most Freemasons have NO clue as to what the leaders of their organization are really doing. They look at it like a fraternity club. Brother helping brother. The bottom tiers are there to make the whole organization look good. But all you have to do is read Albert Pike's book 'Dogmas and Morals' to understand the true depths of depravity that the illuminated leadership is all about. Pike states that the being they truly worship is LUCIFER. Albert Pike was the leader of ALL of FREEMASONRY around the time of our Civil War. He was best buddies with his European counterpart from Italy Mr. Mazzini. Both were diabolical men.

As for George Washington, well, do you know this little known fact, that near the time of his death, he broke away from the Freemasons and returned to his Christian roots. He understood that the blue lodges had become Illuminated after Adam Weishapt and his minions invaded America in May 1776 when they were kicked out of Bavaria. Also the Masonry is a Jewish created entity. The world headquarters is based in Jerusalem. A coincidence?

As for the Freemasons taking over the revolution, well they knew a good thing when they saw it. Remember their scree is no God, no king. And breaking away from the King of England fitted that very well. They are opportunists. Yes they did get a lot of what they wanted in shaping our government. But throughout history we always see the good with the bad. Cain and Able. It is the dichotomy in which we live with.

19. The links between the politicians on Capitol Hill and the bandit State of Israel is quite well known. What do you feel when you hear of your tax dollars being given to Israel - who have broken so many UN resolutions?

Disgusted, but that goes for any nation we give money to. If America was just, we wouldn't need to buy our friends. I am disgusted that one of the major countries spying on us and stealing our military secrets, only to be sold to our enemies are Israelis or American-Jewish traitors like Jonathan Pollard who has more loyalty to the mini-state than the country that birthed him. The s### hit the fan this week with the FBI announced it had broken up an Israeli spying operation focusing on the communication lines of the Whitehouse, NSC, Justice Dept. and may others. With friends like these who needs enemies?

America's Middle East policy should be ONE OF NEUTRALITY to both Arab and Jew alike. How can we be neutral when our national security team is comprised only of Zionist-American Jews? Cohen, Berger, and Albright... how can anything be balanced? Why did Klinton appoint an Australian Jew by the name of Martin Indyk to be the head of our Middle East policy? What's up with that? Aren't there any qualified home grown Americans for that? But sanity isn't one thing our current government is known for, so the game goes on.

[Editorial note: Readers should also remember that the tax-fiddling Lord Levy was appointed as Tony Blair's ambassador to the Middle East! Coincidence?].

20. Your Sex Lies and Politics CD is a great work of art. It seems you put a lot of effort into the music, the graphics and the interactive section. Can you tell us a little of what was involved.? We assume you were overjoyed with the final product.

Thanks, we did. It was very taxing at times more so because of what was going on in our personal lives. It took the talents of many of our friends who believe in what we are doing to make the package what it is. It took over two years, four drummers, two girlfriends, stress, and lots of it. Trying to find funding to pay for the costs as they came up. But hey, God likes "Can Do" people. We prevailed, and the music is now in a packaged form for all to see, hear and share.

As with any piece of art, the artist is never really satisfied with the final outcome. We feel it could always be better. A work of art is never finished, but the time comes when one has to move on to the next thing.

21. As you'll know, FC gave the CD a rave review last issue. What other feedback have you had on the CD from: a. Bods interested in music? b. Bods interested in politics? c. Johnny Foreigners from outside America (like us!)?

Bro you put a big fatty smile on all of the band members faces and significant others. Would you like to write our European Press releases for us?.... :-)

In terms of a real whole total view of the bands music on this disc I think you have nailed it on the head the best out of the press we have had written about us. That was refreshing.

a. Our local college and commercial radio love it and have been pushing track two: 'Don't Walk Away'. We have been growing a whole new group of loyal fans. Its been quite exciting.

b. Many of our orders are coming from 2 groups. The youth, and ex-military + freedom loving patriots. It resonates with their soul. For many of them they had given up listening to Rock music and its politically correct messages, that this music gives them something to rock out to. Focus their energy so to speak.

c. Well brothers, we keep making friends like you all. Must be something cool about it, whether they 'Get it or not'

22. Where do you hope to take Poker Face from here?

We just want to keep writing and performing. Don't know exactly where we are headed but it is definitely in God's hands. We are just the Co-Pilots. The opportunities present themselves, we just have to show up and do the work. That's the deal. So expect a lot more music out of the boys in the near future. As the speeds get faster on the web so will our ability to reach people. We expect a lot will happen once we really get into making videos where people can see the video imagery we would like to go along with the music. The video to 'Illuminati' is just the beginning....

FORECLOSURE OF A DREAM

In issue 18 of Final Conflict Southern Patriot, Ken Hearin, gave us a brief history of the South and what the American Civil War was really about. He now takes a little more up-to-date:

Land of the Free, (hardly); Home of the Brave, (that is yet to be seen.) The United States of America today is not the Republic that our forefathers envisioned. They envisioned a democratic republic, where people were educated to "Liberty" and held moral values. They knew America's form of government would be bastardized without these. Modern Americans think they understand Liberty and Freedom, but I can show that is not the case today. There are many examples that I can show but I will give the four main reasons, in my opinion, that are top of the list. These four reasons all hinge on the basic warning that Patrick Henry gave. And eventual demise of a people if they collectively give up the purse strings, meaning the right of government to tax without the people's consent. And the sword, the people's right to defend themselves collectively against foreign invasion and standing armies of any central government.

DEMOCRACY VERSUS REPUBLIC

First reason that we live in a "Democracy" instead of a Republic is true. Every description in Western Civilization of a democracy is that it is an evil, all the way back to the Ancients. A pure democracy is majority rule or you could say the wrong majority is of mob rule. A democracy has no protection for the rights of the minority; a republic takes this into consideration with a contract, a constitution for example. In the beginning to vote in America you had to be free, white, male, and own property. Today you can be black, white, yellow, female, non-property owner and an avowed communist or atheist. No offence meant to anyone, just a statement of the facts. My point is that there are no cultural discriminations displayed. Perhaps this is what has demoralized America's freedoms. If you took away the non-white, gay and communistic and atheistic votes, someone like Bill Clinton could not be elected. Politicians today in America tax all, well about all, not the super rich, to pay for socialist programs that buys votes for them.

Here in the southeastern United States we have a closer view of what our forefathers meant. Most anti-federalists were Southerners or agrarian if you wish to call them that. Most Southerners were well read on the Latin culture and Greek Governments. They understood liberty to be a living thing that had to be guarded at all times. The reason for the "Bill of Rights" in our Constitution is to establish in writing before they accepted the Constitution as a contract. The anti-federalists refused to sign without the Bill of Rights attached to the Constitution without further amending. They saw the new constitution as a centralization of state powers. And they knew this was very dangerous. So in establishing this constitution the anti-federalists sought to create a rulebook to protect the minority in this new democratic republic. Democracy without controlling rules for the majority is a ship at sea in a storm without a rudder. Today in America, judges, politicians and the uneducated and immoral voters have eroded this "Bill of Rights". Thomas Jefferson warned that the price of liberty was eternal vigilance, not passive resignation and intellectual stupor. Thomas Jefferson, another great Southerner, when writing the constitution had the writings of John Locke at his side.

TAX & FOREIGN WARS

Second, the majority believes that America has a free market economy. This is one of the biggest deceptions today. Fifty per-cent of all tax paying Americans earnings goes to federal, state or local governments. The U. S. Constitution calls only for federal taxes to build forts, post roads and money for protection of our land from foreign "invaders." Not fighting gunboat diplomacy with other nations. We do not belong in Kosovo for example. That is not the action allowed by our Constitution, but the action of a one world international force. Our constitution calls for Americans to have a gold and silver money system not a paper monetary system run by anyone, especially a bunch of bankers called the Federal Reserve System, which is not even an entity of the United States Government.

MONEY, MONEY, MONEY

The Federal Reserve System controls our monetary system, which is a group of private bankers acting as a de facto government agency. The Federal Reserve System set up in the 1930s by our elected politicians has today stolen all the value out of the U. S. dollar. They have even stolen the copper out of the pennies; they are copper plated aluminium. They used this copper to make silver plated quarters and dimes. This is so the silver could be confiscated. The framers of the U.S. Constitution did not write into it the enumerated powers to print paper money, only gold and silver could be made into legal tender. Inflation today, all over the world comes from paper money that is not backed by silver or gold. These private bankers and politicians to please themselves and the politician's pork barrel ideas can manipulate this money. Inflation is taxation without representation and taxes are the source that is used to pay for all the social engineering that goes on today. The 1990s in the U. S. have seen more inflation than the first 100 years of the U. S. existence.

Third is the myth that we live in a free society. Especially since the 14th amendment was added to the constitution. It is becoming more evident that we do not. The Confederate States of America fought to preserve the right of a person to be self-governed. The people of the Southland knew the difference between liberty and license. They understood that true liberty was closely tied to individual responsibility and self-reliance. Southerners defined liberty as the freedom to be independent, to work for one's self, to speak one's convictions and conscience, and to keep the rewards of one's labours and creative endeavours.

SOCIALIST ENGINEERS

What Americans call liberty and freedom today is really socialistic. It is a combination of a system of licenses and freedom from the responsibility of being self-reliant. The socialist engineers have set up a system of tax, to provide for education, food, housing and clothing. This is nothing more than a slave mentality. Through the past three generations Americans have traded their liberty and freedom for a social welfare net.

Prior to the "War of Northern Aggression" the Bill of Rights, the first ten Amendments, was administered by the states to the federal government. Meaning the states administered them, after the 14th amendment the federal government administers them. This is the beginning of centralized government take over in the United States. The people of the Southland resisted this and lost in open battle. After Lee surrendered, Nathan Bedford Forrest took over command of a guerilla war. This is another story entirely, but it is how a race, a nation of culturally similar people gained some of their freedoms back.

Fourth is the myth of our armed forces. The original American Constitution set up an army of the people. It was described as a "Militia", which is the body of the People. Usually every free man between the ages of 16 and 45 were considered the pool of warriors that a State could activate. This was set up to guarantee that a centralized government to subdue the American people could not use a standing army. Today we have an international army used to subdue the world. In 1861 the Southern states formed their armies from these militias. The second amendment states the right for collective armed gathering of the people to be legal. Today the militia in America is made to look like they are evil gun toting hate racists. But, I Ken Hearin say that is not so.

To conclude this commentary I quote from one of our great Southern Heroes, Patrick Henry. He said, "If we give up the purse strings and the sword we are doomed." Patrick Henry was a Southerner like Thomas Jefferson, George Washington, George Mason, Light Horse Harry Lee and many others. Light Horse Harry Lee was the father of Robert E. Lee the leader of the Southern armies of the Confederacy. Today on July the fourth a true Southerner would say, "I do not support Independence day today, because it was lost in the War of Northern Aggression."

CIVILISATION BETRAYED

I hope this article shows the people of Europe that America in the beginning, 1776 to 1861, was an extension of Western Civilization. From the passing of the 14th amendment to today the freedom and liberty that was enjoyed by these early Americans has been bastardized by socialist engineering. My prayer is that the people of America and the people of Europe who understand freedom and liberty will come together and form a force that has to be reckoned with. Pray also that our enemies are converted and see the light or that they are destroyed without any quarter. If anyone has any questions you can contact me at the addresses below.

THE DIXIE FLAG

The following facts were sent into FC by two FC e-mail newsletter readers, following a debate on the Dixie Flag:

The thirteen stars are for the eleven states of the Confederacy plus Kentucky and Missouri who wanted to secede but couldn't.

There is also a connection that the South's secession was the Second American Revolution, and both had 13 states.

The blue saltire is simply the cross of Saint Andrew, as patron saint of Scotland. The Carolinas are highly populated by Scots and it is no coincidence that the shape of the flag overall was to reflect our British heritage and the desire for your intervention in our war for independence.

Also, the saltire design was more easily distinguished from the U.S. flag on the smokey battlefields. We had to abandon our "first national" flag due to just that sort of deadly confusion during combat. You end up shooting at the wrong guys!

Saint Andrew was crucified spread-eagle on an 'X' shaped cross, known in heraldry as a 'saltire'.

THE SYMBOL THEY LOVE TO HATE

A RESTAURANT owner in Lexington has been told that he must pay $20 to get a permit to fly the Confederate flag!

The Dixie Flag had been removed from the Statehouse of South Carolina after a bitter battle between Southern patriots and the usual vested interests who poured out the usual lies and hate against the Confederate flag. The flag was finally removed on July the 1st this year.

When he was told he needed a permit, the owner — Maurice Bessinger — removed the American flag from all nine of his Bessinger's Piggie Park restaurants and raised South Carolina and Confederate flags instead.

Chinless bureaucrats have told Bessinger that he can face fines of up to $500 a day, but the man who had to be taken to court in 1976 to force his restaurants to be multi-racial and who proudly displays his Korean war service medals says he is making a stand for State's rights against the Federal government. The Confederate flag is a companion to the South Carolina flag "because it represents our heritage," Bessinger said.

MAKING CONSPIRACY CRAZY

Dear FC,

Many people don't know, even inside Italy, that many noble families fought during the Second World War, and during the Italian Social Republic (1943-45) and some were killed by the Communist guerrillas and their accomplices (read Socialists, "Christian" Democrats and the rest). Countess Piera Gatteschi Fondelli, for instance, a well-known Tuscan noblewoman, was in charge of the Corpo Ausiliarie delle Forze Armate. This was similar to the women in the British Army during the same period. There were over 20,000 women of all ages and walks of life who presented themselves at barracks in many parts of Northern Italy, to fight for the Fatherland against the traitors and their beneficiaries, and masters, the Anglo-American invaders. They also fought against Tito (the Hebrew who hid behind a Croatian surname), and his Communist hordes. The authorities had to make a strict selection, and only 6,000 women were accepted, as the army suffered an equipment shortage (uniforms, boots, weapons).

This woman was the first-ever woman General in the Italian Army; she died in 1985. The women occupied positions as nurses, cooks, lorry drivers, Railway Policewomen, seamstresses, and at several units in the Navy, Air Force and the Black Brigades (Fascist Brigades). Prince Commander Junio Valerio Borghese was another brilliant example of a patriot in difficult times.

In the meantime, in Southern Italy, the Fascists didn't give up in the occupied regions. They organized groups that occupied temporarily radio stations, broadcast the Duce's official speeches. For example, Princess Maria Pignatelli di Cerchiara, her husband, Prince Cerchiara and some local dukes and marchionesses organized the MIF, an underground Fascist movement in Naples (even though she was born in Tuscany), that was very active under American occupation. She died in 1968 because of a traffic accident.

The list is very long. I gave some examples. In Italy, more and more bookshops show works related to the Mussolini era and his work and person.

Thanks again. Your Comrade and sincere friend,

MG, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

DEGRELLE IN BANNOCKBURN?

Dear Comrades,

on my travels in my job I was pleased to see that the motto of Bannockburn is 'Worthy and Strong'. This reminded me of the text on the T-Shirt of the Forza Nuova supporter in FC #22 - "Destiny will always find us strong and worthy", which I believe is a quote from General Leon Degrelle, a native of Bannockburn?

'Midlands Patriot'

FROM THE HORSE'S MOUTH:

Strobe Talbot, Clinton's Deputy Secretary of State, as quoted in Time magazine, July 20th, 1992:

"In the next century, nations as we know it will be obsolete; all states will recognize a single, global authority. National sovereignty wasn't such a great idea after all."

William M. HUGHES, Premier of Australia, Saturday Evening Post, June 19 1919:

"The Montefiores have taken Australia for their own. There is not a Gold Field or a Sheep Station run between Tasmania and New South Wales that does not pay them a heavy tribute. They are the real owners of the Antipodean Continent. What is the good of our being a wealthy nation, if the wealth is all in the hands of few Jews?"

Send in quotes from enemy sources for future FCs to the usual address.

BIG BROTHER BLAIR AND 4-YEAR-OLDS

Dear FC,

On Sunday 21st June 1998 at 6am I heard on Radio 4 News that children as young as four years of age can be charged with racism. This just proves how mentally sick, desperate and evil multi-racialists are to try and force their views on a child of four.

Those who run this country are mostly evil men and women, and Tony Blair with all his church going means nothing if he could allow a child of four to be charged with racism. Jesus took children on his knee and blessed them, yet these multi-racialists are prepared to condemn children to try and quell the Spirit of God within them...

AB, Eastbourne.

Ed: Indeed. How can Blair and Co. claim any form of morality — Christian or otherwise — whilst promoting homosexuality, abortion, usury and so on. And it's ironic that plays which portray Jesus Christ as a homosexual are permitted by the 'PC' brigade, and yet anything which even hints at Racism or Revisionism is stamped on immediately.

MUM - I TOLD YOU NOT TO WRITE IN!

Dear FC,

the recent issue of FC was, as usual, enlightening and more important, highly enjoyable. How you can put so much information in a readable fashion, and still state the seriousness of the issues involved continues to amaze someone who is used to Nationalist magazines which are bland and in some cases take themselves more seriously than do the readers.

For the sake of all right thinking, free minded people everywhere - continue this though provoking and new approach to presenting all our concerns. This magazine is nothing but a joy to read.

With Best Regards,

PP, Belfast, Ulster.

Ed: Now look here. If these sorts of letters continue people will think we fabricate letters, like some other "nationalist" mags. We never have and we never will ... we don't need to! (honest).

FC - IT'S NOT TOO BAD!

Dear FC,

Final Conflict 22 was magnificent. I'm sending you some photos from the recent 'Sword and Cross' NR Camp in Poland. I've subscribed to FC and found out that other FCs aren't too bad either!

Well done; yes indeed, well done!

K.N., Poland.

FC - IT'S BETTER THAN EVER!

Dear Comrades,

I received issue 24 of FC which I read with great interest. FC is getting better and better. The full colour cover makes it look very professional.

Enc. is £10 for my subscription renewal.

R.S., East London.

ULSTER: THE ROT IS SETTING IN

Dear FC,

Race and the queer scumbags are becoming big issues in Ulster. There are now immigrants all over the place and the queers are more open now, and they have two nightclubs. Let's just say that Ulster is slipping into the multi-racial nightmare, whilst Ulsterfolk — both Protestant and Catholic — are quite content to burn each other out of their homes. The New World Order seems to be winning!

E.K., Portadown, Ulster.

MUSIC

A Better Land by BETTER DEAD THAN RED. Available from RAC Records, PO Box 123, Moorestown, NJ 08057, USA. This CD has been well produced and promoted, and has a clean cut Nationalist skinhead Oi sound. My misgivings about the CD are that it's a bit too 'America is great' and you get the feeling that the band needs to come together a bit more, although the instruments etc. are handled well. But as a first CD it's not too bad. ☺☺☺☺☺

Here We Are by BLOCK 11. Available from: Trinacria Rec., CP 16, 95030, Gravina di Catania, Italy. Some good old fashioned Italian Nationalist Oi for you lot out there. Includes three songs in English, as well as cover versions of Skrewdriver's 'Tomorrow Belongs to Me' (in Italian) and a Bunker 84 song. Good Stuff! Don't forget to join in "...we remain fascist forever" Liberals will love it! ☺☺☺☺☺

A Cog in the Wheel by DISSIDENT. Available from FC. A CD which features Scott from Fortress on vocals and Lyndon from Celtic Warrior on guitar can only be one thing: required listening! And you won't be disappointed. The booklet accompanying the CD is impressive (how could it be otherwise with Leon Degrelle in there?). But need we say more? A top CD that the whole family will thoroughly enjoy. Buy it from FC now! ☺☺☺☺☺

Chants de Colza by ELENLIL. This French band are making quite a name for themselves. Their style is reminiscent of what some English bands, like Above The Ruins, tried to do in the 1980s — but far superior. The organ-based sound, backed up by guitars and drums is very catchy. The female vocalist also adds a melodic quality which prevents the band sounding too morbid — which can sometimes happen with this genre. Whilst my French is almost non-existent, this band appear to tackle serious political/social matters, but a few of the songs come over as quite tongue-in-cheek. All in all a very professional and listenable CD. It is clear that the Nationalist music scene in France breaking out into new areas. Hopefully England can follow! ☺☺☺☺☺

Winter by GERMANIA. Available from FC. A toe-tapper of a CD from this Swedish band. All but one of the songs is in English. Accomplished Nationalist rock, moving from melodic guitarwork to heavy riffs and a Thrash style. The title track is a little cracker and those who like heavier stuff will enjoy this professional CD. Buy it now from FC. ☺☺☺☺☺

In Defence of the Realm by THE LEGION OF ST. GEORGE. Available from FC. I'd seen this lot live a few times and heard their tracks on the 'More Working Class Anthems' LP (also available from FC) and so was expecting the very best! But, whilst this CD is excellent, the production seems a bit amiss. The power of the band live, and their tracks on the '...Working Class' LP just doesn't come through. I think if the power of the nifty guitarwork was more pronounced on the CD it would make the big difference. That aside, it's still a fantastic CD — with some real sing-a-long crackers which will go down a treat live — from one of the most promising and entertaining bands around. Buy it now from FC. ☺☺☺☺☺

Rockumentary by SKREWDRIVER. Available from FC. Well, this CD isn't really by Skrewdriver, it's really about Skrewdriver. It uses snippets of songs from throughout Skrewdriver's reign, along with a commentary (which sounds like it's done by Paul Burnley of No Remorse fame...) plus interviews with Ian Stuart and other members of Skrewdriver.

Whatever your thoughts of such CDs, this is very professionally done and includes all the words to the commentary and interviews in the CD booklet, not that it isn't easy enough to follow.

For my money, the part about the very earliest days of Skrewdriver — the punks and the teds, the concerts in London, 'Back With a Bang' etc. make the CD worth getting. But this CD covers the whole lot: Ian Stuart's imprisonments, Cottbus, Waterloo, right up until Ian's tragic death in 1993.

There's no doubt that this CD will become required listening for all Skrewdriver fans... and it's already selling like hot cakes. Be sure and get yours — buy it now from FC! ☺☺☺☺☺

Blood Destiny by VARIOUS ARTISTS Available from FC. As a 'presentation' of the different artists who have releases on Destiny Records, this CD is crammed full with 16 of the very best White Power tracks. The CD sleeve shows you which original CD each track comes from — and what a selection! Brutal Attack, Celtic Warrior, Sturmwehr, Squadron, Ravens Wing, Kraftschlag, 08/15... It's a veritable 'Who's Who' of Racial music. You'll be sorry not to have this one! Buy it now from FC! ☺☺☺☺☺

Cross & Sword by VARIOUS ARTISTS. Available from FC. This tape was produced to coincide with the pan-European TP Camp in Poland. It features some excellent tracks by Carl Klang, Massimo Morsello, Londinium SPQR, Violent Storm, Hobbit, NARA and Dimension 250. A superb 'world NR' collection. Buy it now from FC! ☺☺☺☺☺

LITERATURE

INTOLERANT

by Joannes

Intolerant? You bet I am.

Can I be otherwise?

I see a wolf destroy a lamb;

And should I shut my eyes?

I see a serpent-mouth devour

My country - should I praise the hour?

I know the devil in control

Says, "Love your enemy,"

Whilst he pollutes our flesh and soul;

A crafty strategy;

To keep us paralysed, mad, sick,

Whilst he rampages is his trick.

My country and my people fall;

A weird brand of love

Makes wretched cowards of us all,

And quickly digs our grave.

The Gospel twisted, chopped, misread,

Becomes a requiem for the dead.

Intolerant I shall remain,

Till the psychosis ends;

A harmless foe is one who's slain,

I'll only love my friends,

And nothing but this maxim know:

A time for peace but war also.

Rommel: The Trail of the Fox by DAVID IRVING.

This book reads like a 'boys own' adventure. Everyone has heard of Rommel, the Desert Fox, who fought the mighty forces of the British Empire across North Africa. What this book brings home though is the humanity of the hero — the man behind the myth, if you like.

Rommel was a real-life hero, even back in the North Italian campaign of WW1. He was a product of Prussian militarism and was ambitious to the extent that he would do almost anything and make any sacrifice to gain glory. But he was no armchair General. Even as a Field Marshall he was happiest when on the front line fighting alongside his beloved troops.

There are a few things in this book which make for interesting reading. Rommel's bravery - his daring in thinking up new schemes to outfox the enemy. His troops admiration for him. The sheer weight of the British forces against his relative handful of German and Italian troops (which make his victories and fighting retreats all the more incredible!). His growing belief that the Germans would lose WW2 and his perceived role in the murder attempt on Hitler. Even after the war, despite possible recriminations, Rommel's family stated that Rommel was loyal to his Führer... Buy it now from FC!

A fantastic book. £10 plus postage from FC.

Out of the Deep - Poems in Dark and Evil Times by JOANNES.

This is a collection of poems which most TP supporters and FC readers will thoroughly enjoy. It's been a while since a decent collection of Nationalist poetry was published (the last being 1957 by Comben and Open Sesame by Biggs, both in the 1980s). Some Nationalists may see 'poetry' as being a bit 'airy fairy', but the fact is that we must defend our land and fight the enemy on all fronts and the more cultural weapons we have at our disposal, the better.

'Joannes' has a special dislike of politicians and the Party System, which is all to the good. He can also manage to sum up matters in succinct ways which encapsulate our struggle. Please support this work so that more Nationalist cultural work can appear! Buy it now from FC!

£1.50 plus p&p from FC (Buy 3 different volumes of Joannes poetry for £3.50)

Ranting Ron: the scourge of Liberals!

WHO'RE THEY FUELING? SOCIAL COMMENTATOR

Some valuable lessons were learnt during the recent petrol blockades and demos.

The first is that the Unions do not look out for "the workers". They look out for themselves and their political bosses. How else can they explain acting as "spies" on the picket lines and feeding information back to the government and police?

Let's hope these traitors get the kicking they deserve if they show their ugly faces at future demos.

Another big lesson is how Blair and Co. used hospitals and the sick. It would have been easy to have each petrol station near a hospital fully stocked for doctors, nurses etc. But the State wanted to use emotional blackmail to stop the 'strike'.

Blair and Co. also claim that the NHS will suffer if taxes on petrol are cut. Why?

Why not cut the billions poured into Brussels? Why not stop the National Debt and refuse to pay usury to the banks? Why not scrap all the funds spent on bureaucratic white elephants and given to faggot groups etc.? There are plenty of ways in which petrol taxes could be cut immediately.

PRAISE INDEED

A KIND reviewer in the Loyalist mag 'Ulster Nation', going under the pseudonym John Jenkins (I can't stand people who don't use their own names!), did a great review of FC mag. The issue he saw was #22.

He says FC's "articles range from the sheer lunacy of 'Ranting Ron' ('The scourge of Bolsheviks, Politicians, Bankers, Faggots, Anarchists and Freemasons'), through to humorous gig reviews and in-depth reports..."

Sounds like I've won another fan to my middle-of-the-road, respectable style of inclusive, caring Nationalism. There's no way any faggots, Masons, liberals or traitors would find me "repellent"!

I'M A BANGLA-NAZI!

A BIOGRAPHY that praised Adolf Hitler as a role model for children has been banned from Bangladesh schools after appearing on a government-approved reading list.

The Bengali language Adolf Hitler, a Great Hero for Children by an obscure writer was among 900 titles approved by the government in June.

After investigating, a committee of academics advised that the biography and 219 other titles (Inc. Mussolini - He's Great and Leese, What a Hero???) be removed. The books were provided free under a £1.7 million project financed by Norway (?) and the Asian Development Bank.

"POP STAR" Billie Piper said she wants to "kick Saddam Hussein off the planet". Why? "I don't know a great deal about it," says Billie, "apart from what they taught us at school". What a vegetable! MP material!

LOOK OUT FOR THE MAGNET!

WITH THE NPD in the news and a possible ban in the air, the media have been keen to bash our German Comrades. If only the media here was as honest as the Spanish papers. This anti-NPD demonstrator was pictured in a Spanish paper. And doesn't he look charming?

As the picture is poor quality I should point out that this degenerate defender of democracy has spikes and piercings going through his eye-brows, cheeks, chin, neck and so on.

If only English newspaper readers got to see a few more of 'the great unwashed' in the press opposing Nationalists, they may get to realise whose side they should be on!

WHAT A SHOWER!

READER'S LETTER: Homosexuals get cleaned up in London.

On Saturday 1st July in London some homosexuals had a march which ended at Finsbury Park, where there was a concert with performers such as the Spice Girls and Kylie Monotonous. Organisers claimed an attendance of 100,000.

Three Comrades happened to be passing this way in their car and noted that the park only had about 2,000 scumbags in it. You know the sort 'men' with fairy wings on and dresses (no they weren't Scotsmen).

The weather that day can only be described as 'God sent'. It was pouring with rain — like a monsoon. Anyway the driver spotted around ten 'nice boys' walking along towards the park, one even had one of those green T-shirts with a red star on it confirming his political allegiance. I am not kidding you, the road was like a river so what could the driver do, except drive through the deepest part and with shouts of "WAHEY!", absolutely soaked the queer scumbags. It was better than a water cannon.

The rest of the day was crap compared to that I can tell you!

Cockney Tony.

BACK CHAT WITH RANTING RON JERUSALEM MY FOOT!

A DISTRAUGHT member of the FC Munch Bunch (are you all wearing your badges proudly?) phoned me the other day, to rant about the 'Fat Les 2000' combo. They're the ones who did the anthem for England in the Euro 2000 set-up. Anyway, apparently before England's friendly against the Ukraine the choir singing 'Jerusalem' with Fat Les 2000 were a bunch of sodomites. For shame!

How dare they even think of uttering that beautiful hymn which means so much to the English!

THE HOLOCAUST CIRCUS

AN AMERICAN Jew, Dr. Norman Finkelstein, has denounced the Holocaust Industry in a book of that title. He accuses those who exploit the Holocaust of telling lies, conniving in Israeli atrocities, and of naked greed. The pursuit of reparations from Swiss bankers and others is damned as "an outright extortion racket".

Finkelstein says that the ruthless industrialisation of the Holocaust has encouraged the rebirth of anti-Semitism in Europe and the United States.

He also said the fascination with Holocaust memorials and museums — the latest being the permanent exhibition at London's Imperial War Museum — was "a kind of circus".

As a Jew "both of whose parents were survivors of the Warsaw ghetto and concentration camps" Finkelstein gets away with saying what is stark ravingly obvious to the rest of us — though even he faces the hatred of Organised Jewry and Zionism..

"I will not have the suffering of my parents used for any ulterior purpose, whether it be the prevention of the assimilation of Jews or the defence of Israel," said Finkelstein.

Finkelstein's ire rose after witnessing countless "survivors" who were clearly telling lies to get reparations.

"The challenge today," writes Finkelstein, "is to restore the Nazi Holocaust as a rational subject of inquiry... The abnormality of the Nazi Holocaust springs not from the event itself but from the exploitive industry that has grown up around it".

Rationalising the holocaust is all that revisionists ever wanted. Looking at it in the same way as we look at historic events in Russia, Spain, Africa...

If someone like Finkelstein can say it — why should we be afraid to do so? It's time to end the Holocaust Industry!
